No burial, scattering of ashes, erection of a tombstone or memorial or the making of any additional inscription on such is to be carried out without the permission of the proper officer of the Council. (SI 1977/204, SCH2, Part 1)

Exclusive rights of burial for plots are sold for a period of 100 years under the signature of the Clerk of the Council. No seal is necessary.

Double plots are sold as side by side or two tier plots.

A certificate of the right of burial is provided to the purchaser and one copy kept by the Council (Held in the book – “Grant Exclusive right of burial”).

Graves to which the right of burial has been purchased are marked on the Cemetery plan in pencil. The purchase is also recorded in the index and body of the “Register of Grants of Exclusive Right of Burial” and in the “Register of Purchased Graves”.
